traincascade

This program is part of the OpenCV distribution, and the source files can be found in the opencv/apps/traincascade subfolder. It is a newer and more modern version of the haartraining program that should be avoided.